

(Cont)

Simpson; Frank won on points. Roy kept coming back gamely and will improve. This was his first bout.

Charlie McLean Jnr fought Sam Conway. Charlie won on points. Sam scored early with his straight lefts, to forget about it later on.

Raymond Foster fought Jim Noble. Jim won on points after two good rounds. Jim's unusual style seemed to baffle Raymond a little.

Albert Nemo fought Brian Fourmile. Albert won on points. Albert was too strong on the night although Brian fought well.

Anthony Conway fought Willie Burton. Anthony won on points. Willie seemed outclassed but courageously battled each round.

Mervyn Frog fought James Tranby. James won on points but Mervyn won the last round easily. However James won the first two rounds and so won the bout. James is developing a bad habit of slapping with his right glove.

Willie Obah fought Keith Bligh. Willie won on points. Here again the winner is losing some of his style. Willie should concentrate on straight punching and not slicing down with the side of the right glove.

Bobbie Reid fought Toby Hunter. Bobbie won on points. Toby could not keep up the pace by Bobbie. This was a good bout.

Albert Watton fought John

(cont)

points. Roy kept improve. This was his ie McLean Jnr fought points. Sam scored s, to forget about it nd Foster fought after two good seemed to baffle

t Nemo fought Brian ts. Albert was too Brian fought well.

ny Conway fought n points. Willie esously battled each n Frog fought James but Mervyn won the James won the first two James is developing his right glove.

e Obah fought Keith Here again the winner Willie should con- g and not slicing ght glove.

e Reid fought Toby Toby could not keep was a good bout.

e Watton fought John

Noble Jnr. Albert won on points. John did not seem to get going although he scored fairly; Albert's defence was too good.

Allan Nugent fought David Langlo. Allan won on points after almost losing in the first round. Allan fought gamely to win a good match.

Francis Brown fought James Fournile. James won on points when Francis had to retire with a cut forehead caused by a head collision. It was anybody's fight until then.

John Cinnabar fought Maurice Palmer. Maurice won on points. This was a good bout.

Bert Massey fought Charlie Parker. Bert won on points. Bert was too business - like for Charlie who was prepared to spar around.

Bert Olander fought Reggie Barry. Bert won on points after a rugged four rounds.

-----
The Superintendent, Mr. Bartlam donated two open orders, one for Two Guineas for the winner of the best fight of the tournament, and one of One Guinea for the best loser.

The judges named Allan Nugent as the winner of the best bout and Reg Barry as the most courageous loser and Mr. Bartlam presented the orders at the close of the tournament.

-----
Youth is a blunder; Manhood struggle; Old Age a regret.
-----