

BOXING.

A boxing tournament was held in Townsville on Saturday 18th June, 1960. A very large crowd attended and Palm Island sent in eight boxers but only four were able to be matched. Three Palm Islanders won their bouts.

Tom Congoo fought R. Parison of Home Hill, Tom won on points. Tom gave a very good account of himself in a very lively bout.

Bethany Wallace fought J. Wonga of Babinda, Bethany lost on points - a very good fight. Bethany found his opponent's style hard to handle.

Albert Nemo fought R. Fenton of Home Hill, these were two good boys. Albert won on points. This bout was a crowd pleaser as both boys went at it hammer and tongs from the start.

David Langlo fought R. Greenwood N.F.C. - a very good fight. David knocked him out in the last round. R. Greenwood is the N.Q. title holder and David's win was a good one.

Colin Gibson fought N. McGinnis of Mareeba (title holder). This boy is a strong fighter. Colin won on points. Colin was, as usual slow to start, but when he got going he made up the points.

Max Simpson - no match was available to Max as well as Ron Nemo and Arthur James.

A house in Bunbury, England was built on publicly owned land - taking advantage of an ancient law that permitted a man to so locate his dwelling provided he completed it in one night - and the chimney was smoking by morning.

Have You Tried This?

Line the pockets of woollen garments. Saves them from sagging and spoiling the line of the garment.
