

GOOD LUCK
TO FRED CLAY

Last Monday Fred Clay one of the best boxers I have seen on Palm Island, left to take up professional fighting in Brisbane and perhaps Sydney and Melbourne.

Why was Fred Clay selected for this venture?

The answer is that at all times he was prepared to enter the ring and meet all comers. He showed that he was a sportsman in the ring, and a good citizen in his daily life.

Many of you too could be as successful as Fred, if you trained hard, worked hard and kept out of trouble.

The Welfare Association of which the Boxing Committee is only a section will always see that a deserving case gets a chance. Good reports about Clay both on the island and the mainland where he worked and also fought, was instrumental in your Superintendent's recommendation that he be given a chance.

I was talking to Fred the evening before he left and I told him that a lot of hard training and some hard knocks were coming his way before he got to the top of the tree. I believe my-self that Fred Clay will make good and we will have cause to be proud of him.

So with the entire population of Palm Island I again say "Good Luck Fred Clay!"

BOXING NOTES
By T.K.O.

A lengthy programme has been arranged for this Saturday night and it is hoped that all boxers will be punctual so that the maximum number of bouts may be run off. Already about 70 boxers have been weighed and registered and I am sure there are plenty more to hand
