FOOTBALL NOTES.

Observer.

The weekend football concluded the first round, and the battle for the Superintendent's Cup. To Skipjacks we offer our congratulations on winning this coveted trophy.
The final points were:- Skipjacks = 22 $\frac{1}{2}$, Brothers = 13 $\frac{1}{2}$.

The old football saying that a game is not won until the final whistle was true during the past round of games. There were times when the unlucky Federals were more than holding their own against both Skipjacks
and Brothers, but by determined effort the Skipjacks under the enthusiastic leadership of Frank Jack came back to win. Federal could be called the unlucky team of this year's competition. On paper their players look good but on the field,
in spite of good leadership by Harry Johnson,

they lack that extra energy to carry on to victory.

Brothers predicted return to form has not as yet been seen. They have the speed and youth to do great things; but in spite of this they seem to lack defence when the scoring of the other teams gets moving. An analysis of the goal kickers of the teams show Ron Hero the champion.

The Tully-Palm Island match is the main topic among football fans. Last year we brought home the shield. This year we take it with us to compete against Tully next Sunday. Time will tell if we will return with it to Palm Island. We have good material to get a victory; but will Tully have better? In any case we will more than hold our own, especially if we concentrate on speed, defence, and football.

In the congratulatory section we include the following as worthy of mention. Spencer Curley, Bernard Blanket, John Haines, Silas Prior, and Ron Hero. They are all eighty minute men with good football brains, and with an eye always roving, looking for that opening that means ground gained and their teams nearer the goal line.

To the team picked to don the green and gold next Sunday against Tully we say "good football, pleasant companionship with their opponents, and may the better team win!"

The only way to make a friend is to be one.
