

at the luncheon table and Mr Krause president of the Social and Welfare Association acknowledged the welcome and said Palm Islanders had come to look upon this visit as an annual event and hoped the Life Savers' Club would find it convenient to pay a return visit to Palm Island before the season closed.

At the evening meal, Mr Jim Stanley, coach and captain of the Palm Island team, in a few well chosen words expressed the visitors thanks for the wonderful way they had been received and cared for and said it was indeed a very happy day for Palm Islanders. He was pleased his team had won, though things looked grim for a while, he also paid a tribute to the opposing team who had played a really good game. He expressed his heartfelt thanks to the ladies and congratulated them on the excellent meals they had served and said he hoped they would be able to come with the Life Savers team when it visited Palm Island so Palm Islanders could reciprocate the hospitality extended to them.

Mr Greg Barry, one of the Palm Island senior referees accompanying the visitors seconded this vote of thanks.

Mr Kennedy suitably responded. The party then left for home and a delightful trip across the waters brought a very memorable and happy day to a close.

Quotation

Here's to the man who plans things-
Builds things-makes things-
Who prates not of wonders of old:
Nor gloats upon ancestral gold,
But takes off his coat, and takes a hold..

And does things.
