

BOXING.

A good nights' entertainment was held on Saturday 5th August.

Ron Walsh fought John Sibley jnr., John won on points.

Albert Tyson fought Roy Simpson, Roy won on points after a fast two rounds.

Stephen Walsh fought Norris Palmer, Norris won on points.

Joe Watson fought Sam Conway, Sam won on points. Sam kept boring in and won his points by aggressive action.

Carl Wyles fought Russel Free, Carl won on points, this was a good match.

Brian Tobane fought Charlie McLean jnr., Charlie won on points after a lively bout.

Herbie Tanner fought Raymond Foster, Herbie won on points. Raymong is improving each time he boxes.

Albert Nemo fought Harry Norman, Harry won on points.

Hans Pearson fought Ron Nemo, Hans won on points. Ron made the pace early but Hans was too rugged for him.

David Gundy fought Bert Massey, Bert won on points David will improve with practice.

Kelvin Walker fought Francis Brown, Francis won on a foul.

John Cinnabar fought Maurice Palmer, Maurice won on points. Maurice was too persistent for his opponent who wasted his energies in unnecessary footwork.

The fight manager was grouching "My boy is no good in short fights." he said. "He needs 15 rounds". But preliminary fighters just don't get 15-round fights, so he finally had to settle for a six-rounder.

After ten seconds in the first round the fighter was flat on the canvas, out like a light.

"You see!" howled his manager. "I told you he's no good in short fights."
