

Boxing in the South - continued: PIN 4 11 55 p7

The team will leave Brisbane by train on November 17th, and will fight in Hobart on November 21st and 23rd, with finals on November 25th.

The Quest winners who missed out in the State titles were featherweight Noel Hazard (Mt. Isa), lightwelter Johnny Tapp (Brisbane), and the middleweight Doug. Greaves (Emu Vale).

LOCAL BOXING.

On Saturday next a team of Palm Islanders will proceed to Townsville for the boxing tournament under the auspices of the Townsville branch of the National Fitness Club.

The team which will include Colin Gibson, Arthur James, Dave Twaddle, James Fourmile, Allan Barry, Mackie Simpson, David Prior, Keith Bligh, Lionel Courtney will be travelling in the M.V. "Irex".

DANCING.

Last Saturday night the dancers put on a show at the picture grounds.

The women's corroboree dance was a point of interest and included one of the dormitory women.

Chain Reaction:

A woman complained that half the time when friends telephoned her the bell didn't ring. A repairman ran a series of tests, said he could find nothing wrong.

"But so often when people call," the women protested, "the bell doesn't ring."

"If it doesn't ring," argued the repairman, "how do you know they're calling?"

"Because my dog barks. He'll start barking like mad. There won't be a sound from the telephone, but when I lift the receiver, someone will be calling."

(continued over page)