A.C.C. MEETING

The Chairman of the Yarrabah Community Council, Mr Bryce Barlow, went to an Aboriginal Co-ordinating Committee Meeting up at Weipa last month. Mr Barlow said the meeting involves representatives from each Aboriginal Community Council, discussing their community needs and the legislation. One for instance is rate charges. The councils are yet to decide when this is going to be made effective. For just a reminder they are: water, garbage and sanitation methods etc.

Other talks are centered around award wages, employment, budgets and their community's development.
