

DORMITORY PARTY.

The usual monthly social and dance was held at the Women's Home on Thursday last and several special items were put on between dances and very much appreciated by all present.

Margaret Tiers did a very creditable hula and was followed later by a parody of a hula dance by Adrian Sailor and Nelson Brumby.

The Landers brothers helped out with the music on the guitars and Archie Williams and Ivy Rosser took a turn on the accordion.

The party terminated with a supper supplied by the Dormitory women.

BOXING IN THE SOUTH.

The following sports item will be of interest to Palm Island Boxing fans. It will be remembered that Colin Gibson and Arthur James fought in the Olympic Quest and that Colin Gibson met both Tapp and Carsburg. He met Carsburg who eventually won the State Title in his second bout in the State Tournament and was beaten on points.

Six Courier-Mail Olympic Quest winners are among the 10 Queensland amateur boxers to contest the Australian titles in Hobart next month.

They are flyweight Warner Batchelor (Brisbane), bantam Wal Taylor (Mackay), lightweight Keith Anderson (Eumundi), welter Ken Eveans (Boonah), light-heavy Pete Roberts (Cairns), and heavyweight Les Crabbe (Brisbane).

The other four boys, all State titleholders, are: feather (Garry Cowburn (Monto), light-welter Ray Carsburg (Toowoomba), light-middleweight Pat Wilson (Warwich), and middleweight Stan Reimer (Brisbane).
