aboriginals by the West Australian Minister for Native Welfare, Mr. Brady, who recently visited our Settlements and Reserves. His Government is exploring the possibilities of setting up similar centres modelled on the Queensland pattern.

FOOTBALL DINNER.

As a fitting finale to a long and successful season, The Palm Island Footballers were the guests of the Welfare Association at a dinner and presentation of trophies last Thursday evening at the Welfare Rooms. In a prominent position and fittingly bedecked with the winning club colours were the array of trophies for presentation. With a large number of footballers present, and a congenial atmosphere pervading the dinner was a most enjoyable function.

With the eats disposed of, the President welcomed the Superintendent, Mr. R. H. Bartlam and commented on the unbeaten season our seniors had for 1958. He also thanked the donors of the trophies, Messrs D. Garrett, J. Doolan and D. Patten.

After the presentation of the trophies and shields Mr. Bartlam in a brief address congratulated the footballers on their standard of play and praised the footballers for leaving their small differences during play, at the football grounds.

The Club Captains, H. Johnson (Federals), A. Walsh (Brothers) and W. Palm Island (Skip-jacks) also spoke.

Best Forward: President's Cup: H. Johnson.
Fairest and best: Halifax V Palm Island:
W. Palm Island.

Congratulations to Brothers and Skipjacks and to all trophy winners. In the picking of the winners the task was not easy as so many were eligible and if the close of the present season is any indication of the 1959 season then Brothers could very easily be replaced by Federals or Skipjacks for premiership honours.
