

Boxing - continued:

James landed a good right to the face in the first round and moved smartly to evade Doug's rushing tactics.

Ron Hero and Maurice Coolwell fought a hard two rounds but Ronnie was carrying too much condition and blew out in the second round. He threw in the towel. It was a lively two rounds with Ron Hero well ahead on points. Although he had received the worst of it Maurice Coolwell was taking it all and coming back for more and Ron was not able to keep up the pace.

Among the fly weight Jimmy Reid fought 3 rounds against his namesake Robert Reid and won on points. These were school boys.

Tommy Nardoo would not come off the ropes after an exchange on the first round with Norman Aden who was crowned the winner.

Jack King and Norman Fulford fought a lively round or two until Jack knocked Norman down in the second round. An unintentional foul was claimed and Norman Fulford was given the verdict.

Arthur McGreen was too heavy for Mick Fulford who however managed to weather it through gamely to lose on points.

Billy Benn had an easy victory over Ernest Chookie. This was a poor match as Billy is too strong and heavy for Ernest. Ernest tried hard but was not good enough.

There were several other bouts during the evening to make a good night's sport.

It was interesting to see that many of the boxers were in much better boxing condition than that in which they usually presented themselves in the ring and the effect could be seen in the better class of boxing.

BOXING IN TOWNSVILLE!
