

Editorial - continued:

a credit to their Settlement when they go on these trips to the mainland.

Extracts from Mr Byrne's letters appear elsewhere in this issue.

FAREWELL CONCERT TO MATRON CHRISTIE FROM PEOPLE OF FANTOME IS.

On Wednesday night, the 22nd of April, the people of Fantome gave a farewell concert to Matron Christie.

The Concert was held, at the Picture Pavilion, and the following items were rendered by the people.

Adagio Atu-island dances.

Mick Brown's Ragtime Band playing "The Woodpecker's Song".

Donald Briggs played on Hawaiian guitar with Archie Doctor on Spanish "Farewell Blues".

Alec and May Landers sang "Star of Hope".

George Cummins played Hawaiian guitar with spanish guitar accompaniment by Granger Snider "The Hawaiian Hotel March" and "Guitar Boogie".

Dan Coleman played "Joyous Companion" on the mouth organ.

"The Lonely Little Robin" was sung by Ann Cummins, Valery Boyd, Martha Brown, Daphne Wilson with guitar and mandolin accompaniment.

Norm Skeen and Ken West gave a duet.

Percy Freeman sang "Where the Murrumbidgee Flows".

Ken Thompson sang "Oh T.I."

Stan Victor and Ethel Cannon sang "Whispering Hope". Ivan Roberts sang "The Grandest Homestead of All" and "Little Kid Sister of Mine". The parting song was sung by the Company, and the Concert was arranged by the M.C. & Ivan Roberts.